Wheat Leads All In Sinking Market.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Liquidation by dis-couraged longs, influenced mostly by a 11/2d decline at Leliverpool, ruled in the wheat pit throughout the session. The heavy movement, favorable weather and wheat pit throughout the session. The heavy movement, favorable weather and a slow cash demand added to the build demoralization. Some export business y was accomplished at the decline, but there was not enough of it to check the build from the price materially. The selling was general, the demand local and scattered, and listle caticulated to withstand the heavy lines, which came into the pit through the commission houses.
